

November 30, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For further information, please contact Jake Scaltreto at (617) 899-2773 or media@flatearththeatre.com

FLAT EARTH THEATRE PRESENTS "THE GOAT OR, WHO IS SYLVIA?"

WATERTOWN, MA--Flat Earth Theatre presents Edward Albee's highly provocative, Tony Award-winning drama, The Goat or, Who is Sylvia?, January 7th through the 15th at the Arsenal Center for the Arts in Watertown.

When Martin, a distinguished and successful architect, is forced to confess a sordid affair to his family, the consequences could have the power to destroy his ideal life, and the lives of his wife and teenage son. Martin is left to reflect on the very nature of love, and the outer limits of conventional morality, as he bears excruciating witness to the shattering of his world. From the acclaimed playwright whose other credits include Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? and The Zoo Story, The Goat or, Who is Sylvia? paints an agonizing portrait of an American family on the brink of collapse, posing the question, "what does it truly mean to love?"

Performances will be held January 7th, 8th, 13th, 14th, and 15th at 8 PM, and January 9th at 2 PM. All shows presented at the Arsenal Center for the Arts Black Box, 321 Arsenal Street, Watertown. Tickets are $15 if purchased in advance, $20 at the door. Students pay $10 at the door with valid ID. January 13th's performance will be "pay-what-you-can" at the door. For tickets and more information, visit <http://flatearththeatre.com> or call (800) 838-3006.

###