Flat Earth Theatre has been collaboratively crafting challenging theatre in greater Boston since 2006. Featured productions include the world premier of Pirate Lives! The Musical!, the award-winning staging of The Pillowman featuring the IRNE-nominated shadow puppetry of Woellert&Clark, and last summer's dimension-traveling production of Rocket Man. Check out the 2014 season "Literature in Dystopia," featuring Ann Marie Healy's What Once We Felt in March, Ariel Dorfman's Reader in June, and George Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion in August, at flatearththeatre.com.

COMING SOON

Don't miss the New England premiere of Ann Marie Healy's What Once We Felt presented March 14th – 22nd at the Davis Square Theatre, 255 Elm Street, Somerville, MA. One woman's utopia is another's dystopia in which a fully digitized caste society of genetically engineered "Keepers" threaten to drive the intrinsically disadvantaged "Tradepacks" to extinction. Echoing this strife, writer Macy O. Blonsky fights to see her novel—the last novel—published while the editing process strips her work of its intended meaning. Healy's futuristic vision of eugenics and the hunger for creative integrity brings to life the age-old struggle over whose stories deserve to be told.
